

A SCARE ON HALLOWEEN

It was the night of Halloween and Lori, Lucy and Bianca were having a sleep over at Jessica's.

"They're here" squealed Jessica as she rushed to the door. "Hey" they all said. "Come in, I can't wait for tonight" said Jess. "We're gonna have snacks, watch a movie and stay up all night" said Lucy. "I hope you will get some sleep or you will be tired in the morning" said Jessica mum walking in.

It was now 7.30pm and the girls had just got back from trick or treating. "That was so much fun" said Lori and Lucy. "It was OK" said Bianca. Jessica rolled her eyes. "Anyway let's watch a movie" suggested Bianca – "Something scary". "Sure" they agreed.

Jessica's mum brought them snacks at the beginning of the movie. Half way through the movie the TV lost signal. "That was strange" said Jess. "Let me check downstairs". When Jess looked in the living room – that TV was on ?? She went back upstairs – "it's just my TV that" - suddenly the lights went out. "Aagh" they all screamed. Then the lights came back on. Everyone was scared except Lucy as she was gone !!!

"Where's Lucy?" asked Lori as they started to panic. "I'll ask my mum" said Jess. As she ran down the stairs she heard a familiar voice shouting HELP!! It was Lucy. She called for her mum but she didn't answer. Jess ran back upstairs frantically and told the girls what had happened. "I saw this in a movie before" said Lori. "Did they all live in the end" asked Bianca. "Nope" she replied. They all ran to the stairs and heard someone say "If you ever want to see your friend and mother again go to the 'hang out' in the woods".

All the girls grabbed a bag each. Laurie grabbed first aid. Jessica took snacks and water and Bianca took weapons. They arrived at the 'hang out'. There was a circle of candles lighting out side. "WOW this is creepy" said Bianca. An evil spirit appeared holding Lucy and Mum hostage.

"What do you want?" asked Jessica. "What I want is a big mac and fries before midnight or else you won't see this pair again". "What ?? it is 10pm – we only have two hours". "Then you had better be on your way" – laughed the evil spirit. The girls ran through the woods on to the dark lane and before long they reached McDonalds. They placed their order but the electricity was out which meant their order took longer than expected. Eventually they were called, they had 10 mins to get back to the woods to save Lucy and Mum.

They ran as fast as they could. On the stroke of midnight they offered the evil spirit his meal. "Reveal yourself" said Jessica. The girls were really frightened as the spirit pushed Lucy and Mum aside, grabbed the food and threw off his costume – it was DAD - "BOO" he said.
