

Opening Doors by Maya Dowling- 4th class

In the dark of night everyone had gone trick or treating except one person. Anabelle did not like trick or treating but today was different. She was going to a haunted house! Anabelle's parents were going to drop her there.

Once she was there Anabelle shivered, then opened the door. Suddenly a warm gust of wind and whaling hit her. All of a sudden Anabelle's best friend Mary came up to her. Anabelle! Mary!

"What are you doing here?" asked Mary.

"I came to see the haunted house" answered Anabelle.

"Should we go in? Yes, I think we should". So, in went Anabelle and Mary into the dark house.

"What was that?" Whispered Mary..... "I don't know" answered Anabelle.

"Ah ...ghost" shrieked Mary, "run" screamed Anabelle.

"In here quickly! That was too close we should get out of here" Mary said terrified.

"How do we get out of here?" asked Anabelle. "I don't know" said Mary.

"We're trapped" gasped Anabelle. "No wait a second... look I've found a door let's go" said Mary gladly.

"Come on let's go" said Anabelle cheerfully. "Hold on a second this door won't open" exclaimed Mary.

"Let's try this one" Anabelle said hopefully. "This one opened" Mary said overjoyed. "Let's get out of here" shouted Anabelle.

"I never want to go in there again. Let's go home" Anabelle said. And off they went.

The End